CARD

To the Electors of the District of Saskatchewan.

GENTLEMEN—Permit me by assurance of support from leading and influential men in nearly every section of the District, I have decided to be a candidate for your franchise at the approaching Dominion elections in the Liberal Conservative interest.

Living here at Clark's Crossing, as I do, I am outside the atmosphere of sectional animosities, and can speak support from all parts of the District, without meeting the objection that my friends are more identified with one place than another. I have been fourteen years experience as editor of a public journal in Canada, which gives me a knowledge of public affairs sufficient, I think, to qualify me as your representative, while a three years residence in the Northwest has familiarized me to a considerable extent with the wants and requirements of our people.

If time permits before the election takes place, I shall visit Prince Albert and other places, organize public opinion, and an-ounce the principles upon which I ask your support. Should I not I must rely upon those friends who know me best to say a good word in my behalf, and this endicator to secure for me the votes and influence of a majority of the intelligent electors of Saskatchewan.

Yours respectfully,

R. T. MOLLOY.

TELEGRAPHIC.

(By Special Telegraph.)

WINNIPEG, Jan. 12.

A special extra Canada Gazette was issued last evening proclaiming the Act granting representation to the Northwest, in Ottawa, but was afterwards withdrawn by special messengers, whose explanation was that copies had been issued before the order-in-council was passed.

A big flour mill is being erected by

Mitchell, of Montreal, Maher, of Keewatin, and others, at Keewatin. It will have a capacity of one thousand barrels a day, and will be the largest in the Northwest. They also intend establishing elevators and warehouses in the leading grain markets of Manitoba.

His Lordship Bishop Grandin and Rev.

Fathers Andre and Leontine, who left for the east a few days ago by way of Chicago, will proceed direct to Ottawa without remaining over at one or two

American cities as was their intention.

Archbishop Tache is convalescent, and is up and around. In about a month he expects to leave for Rome to be in attendance at the general meeting of the Oblat Order, which takes place in April.

The Liberal Conservative Association of Winnipeg met last night and elected officers. Nominations as to candidature for Commons.

Sir John Lester Kaye is in the city and has completed arrangements with the Department of the Interior for the establishment of ten large farms in the Northwest. He leaves for England shortly to organize a scheme of operations on his farms to be commenced in the spring.

It is understood that there has been no new appointments under the Torrens

Act recently put into operation in the Northwest. The registrars in the various districts will continue to perform their duties as formerly. In all probability Alberta will remain divided as at present, with offices at Calgary and Edmonton.

M. Daly has been nominated Conservative candidate for Selkirk, Man.

It is stated that writs for the Dominion elections have been issued, and the nominations will take place on February 8th, and polling on the 15th.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 12.

The political situation is still the topic of conversation throughout Manitoba and eastern Canada and both parties are pushing preparations.

Sir John is in Toronto conferring with the leaders of the party and endeavoring to strengthen the newspaper situation.

Polling, as stated yesterday, takes place on February 15th, except probably in the Territories. The withdrawal of notice of proclamation was due to the fact that the signature of Lord Lansdowne had been omitted, but it will doubtless be issued immediately.

Sir Charles Tupper will immediately

enter the cabinet as Minister of Finance and lead the Conservative party of Nova Scotia.

The situation in Winnipeg is uncertain. The Conservatives have made no nominations yet. They will probably offer a nomination to Sir Donald A. Smith, though there is a difference of opinion.

The Liberals talk of nominating Isaac

Campbell.

Lord Eldersleigh, better known as Sir

Stafford Northcote, died yesterday while having a conference with Lord Salisbury.

Death resulted from failure of the heart action.

Eastern morning papers to-day contain no indication of Dominion elections, but reports will probably be found correct as Hon John Norquay is understood to have received a telegram to that effect.

Northwest representation will not be proclaimed until Saturday.

Deputy Sheriff Kaye returned from St.

Laurent yesterday.

Chester Thompson left for Portage la

Prairie by last mail.

The annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Rifle Association took place on Tuesday evening last, but owing to a poor attendance was adjourned to next Monday evening, when it will meet over T. O.

Davis' store. Business, the election of officers, etc. Full attendance requested.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In the death of Sir Stafford Northcote the British Empire loses a great man, and the present Imperial Government, weak at best, one of its chief mainstays.

Andrew Lepine, who was concerned in the first Red rebellion, but who acted most loyally during the late outbreak, has obtained the reinstatement of all his civil rights, which he lost in accepting a commutation of his death sentence.

We have received a special number of the Kingston Whig, in which is given a history of the Limestone City and its prominent citizens for the last half century. To old Kingstonsians the illustrations of old buildings and old faces, and the historical reminiscences, cannot but prove interesting.

The Torrens system of land transfer went into operation in the Northwest Territories on January 1st. The adoption of this system thus early in our career will prove a great boon to people, as it is not only simple, but owing to the fact that the transfer from the Crown will be made under it in most cases and that other lands have passed through few hands since patents were issued, it will avoid future complications. Under the Act the registrar must be a lawyer, but no appointments have been made as yet, and the present officers will continue to perform their duties as formerly.

At Halifax Mr. Anglin said: "They (the Government) have mismanaged affairs in the Northwest by sending out to the poor Indians a miserable lot of professing men, whom they were ashamed to appoint to any other position in Canada, but who were good enough for the unfortunate people—to rob them and ill-treat them." While there may be an odd blacksheep in every flock, we have no hesitation in saying that the Indian department officials of the Northwest, as a body, will compare very favourably with any other body of Government officials, or the hon. gentleman who slanders them. Besides many of them were appointed by the Mackenzie government. As for the morality of the Indians, it is not ours to say that it was as a very low order long before any Canadian officials came into the country.

ST. LAURENT.

(Special to the Times.)

ST. LAURENT, Jan. 10.—A largely attended meeting of Hallbreeds was held at the schoolhouse, Batoche, to-day, Mr. A. Garneau presiding, with Mr. Octave Regue as Secretary. The meeting was a very animated one. The platform laid down by Mr. R. J. Molloy was unanimously approved and he was authorized to visit the other sections of the district and if he secures a reasonable number of supporters there, the United Hallbred nomination will be tendered him.

TERRITORIAL NEWS.

BATTLEFORD.

The Herald of Dec. 20th says:—Dr. Mackay visited the Battle River reserves last week, and discovered that the disease which had been reported to him as scarlet fever was the croup. Besides this there is an unusual amount of sickness prevalent on the reserves, but it is in no way connected with their treatment by the instructors, or of "starvation" by the Government. They have an abundance of fresh beef and fish in addition to bacon, and it is said by those who have been amongst them that much of the sickness is due to their gluttony.

It would be a happy thing for many hard working white men if their landers were as well supplied as those of the Indians are.

There are quite numerous between here and Pitt, and also a little way north of the Saskatchewan, opposite to the town. Foxes and wolves are also more than usually numerous, and a good many are being killed.

EDMONTON.

The Bulletin, Dec. 11, says:—

Jas. Nolan arrived from Saddle Lake on Thursday, where he has been threshing out the crop of the Indian settlement. The yield and quality of grain was good. Telegraph communication was opened with Fort Saskatchewan on Wednesday.

W. Ross, operator.
A blackfoot halfbreed who has been in the employ of J. Norris, senior, for some time past, became dangerously insane on Tuesday of this week, and had to be confined in the police cells here. He was examined by Supt. Griesbach on Friday and will be taken to Ft. Saskatchewan to-day.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A LITTLE HASTY.

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—I would like to call attention to a reference in the Winnipeg Weekly Free Press of Dec. 22d to a letter of Dr. Dr. Jardine's, written to the Brookville Record, with reference to the farmers of this district. It seems to me that that gentleman has been a little hasty in his conclusions regarding the farmers of this place. Dr. Jardine "on arriving" at Prince Albert, in a wonderfully short space of time jumps to the conclusion that "a few good Scotch farmers" were successful, "but they are very few," and that unless a "great increase in the number of industrious and intelligent men" come and settle here, the country as regards Prince Albert will go the dogs.

Dr. Jardine, "on arriving" here, without any loss of time, jumped to the conclusion that all but "very few" were idle and ignorant, and that those "industrious and intelligent" ones were Scotch. Now, Mr. Editor, I do not wish to rob the Scotch farmer of his just due, but I certainly demand justice from Dr. Jardine in behalf of other settlers as well, of different nationalities. Let him visit west, south and east of Prince Albert, and he will see equally as prosperous settlers, notwithstanding the severe visitation of Povisthine in the drought of the three last years, at which we do not repine, but having made this country our home, and when we have gained experience in farming, having been a shorter period at such occupation, we will show Dr. Jardine that there are others that are as industrious and intelligent, and have the determination to "do or die." We say we lack experience at farming. I think Dr. Jardine would do well to acquire a little more experience of people and communities before jumping at conclusions; he would attain what he apparently lacks. He not only slanders a striving, honest and respectable class all over the district, but he does our country a harm by such misrepresentation that may not be easily eradicated from the eyes of the outside world.

If Dr. Jardine is a gentleman, which his title would denote, he should retract his expressions, made, as they were, without due reflection or knowledge.

By giving space to this letter in your valuable paper you would confer a favor on a great many industrious and intelligent farmers, and your humble servant.

CHAS. ADAMS.

Red Deer Hill, Jan. 6th, 1887.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? I have sent at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children's teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, relieves Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children's teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.
